PROF. SUJATA SALVI

Assistant Professor | Management Education | Research & Analytics | Organisational Behaviour | Social Responsibility

Professional Profile

Prof. Sujata Salvi is an academician with multidisciplinary academic qualifications and professional experience in management education, research, administration and institutional engagement. She is currently working as an Assistant Professor at St. Francis Institute of Management and Research, Mumbai, since August 2022. Her professional experience combines teaching, academic planning, student mentoring, research activities, industry exposure and institutional CSR initiatives.

Educational Qualifications

PhD (Pursuing) – Health Systems Management, TISS, Mumbai | M.Phil. – Health Systems Management, TISS, Mumbai | MBA – Hospital Management | B.Sc. – Nursing | B.A. – Industrial Psychology

Academic and Professional Experience

She has over eight years of experience in academic and professional roles, including working as Assistant Professor at Aditya Institute of Management Studies and Research, Mumbai (2018–2022), and St. Francis Institute of Management and Research (2022 onwards). Her academic responsibilities include teaching management subjects, academic planning, guiding student projects, mentoring students and encouraging participation in conferences and seminars.

Areas of Expertise

- Management Education and Academic Mentoring
- Research Methodology and Data Analysis
- Organisational Behaviour and Psychology
- Quantitative and Qualitative Research
- CSR and Social Responsibility
- Administration and Operations Management
- Healthcare Management and Systems Research

Research and Academic Contributions

Her research interests include corporate social responsibility, management practices, organisational effectiveness, healthcare systems and social responsibility. She has attended and presented research papers and posters at various national and international conferences, including IIM Ahmedabad and the Global Summit on CSR organised by IICA and IIM, New Delhi.

Achievements and Outreach

- Received an award for a poster presentation on the impact of extended working hours of healthcare professionals on patient care at a national-level conference.
- Designed courses on Hospital Service Management and Physician Assistant programmes under TISS's NUSSD initiative.
- Delivered guest lectures and contributed to academic and skill development programmes.
- Actively involved in student mentoring, conference participation and institutional CSR initiatives.
- Participated in advanced research methodology and faculty development programmes, including quantitative and qualitative analysis using R and ATLAS.ti.